

Frequently Asked Questions

Do you have relationships with the wedding planners?

We are a one stop shop and have the best wedding planner and team available in Costa Rica right here. Our team has been working with the entire staff at Tierra Magnifica for years and works like a fine tuned orchestra.

- How many people can you accommodate?

We can lodge up to 24 adults. Typically the wedding party and/or family stay on site. We can accommodate any number though for the wedding events. We've hosted wedding of over 150 guests.

- What do we do with all guests needing a place to stay?

Our sister company, a travel management company, will take care of booking the rest of your guest list in hotels and houses nearby. All of the travel logistics are managed by this company for all your guests.

- How do we get to TM from the Airport?

We will arrange private and group shuttles from both international airports. For those who want to skip the drive we'll arrange regional and charter flights.

How far is Tierra Magnifica from the airport?

We are a two hour drive from the Liberia airport and 4 1/2 from the San Jose airport. It's about 30 minutes my plane.

- Do you also have transportation for all different events during our week?

Yep. We will arrange vans to get everybody where they need to be on time for the wedding events.

- Can all our guests staying somewhere else can come to TM during the week?

Sure. You're welcome to surround yourself with as many of your friends and family as you'd like all week long. But often times you may appreciate some intimate time at TM with your wedding party and family. We will plan individual activities for your guests so they are enjoying A vacation along with your wedding events.

- Can they also have meals with us?

Absolutely. We can charge them individually for their meals and beverages.

- How do we pay for all extra charges during the week?

We typically set up room tabs for your guests staying with you so they can put their meals and beverages, tours and spa services on and pay with a credit card at the end of the week. For guests not staying with you we will charge a credit card or take cash at the time of the service.

- What events do you normally have during the week?

A common schedule includes starting on Wednesday with a poolside welcome barbecue. Then on Thursday we have the rehearsal dinner, often times set up on the beach. On Friday we host the ceremony and reception. Saturday then can be a casual day for you and your guests to enjoy lounging around the pool or at the beach. Many times we have a mimosa brunch on this day. Then in Sunday everyone flies home.

But we have also done week long weddings with events every night.

Can we get married on the beach?

Sure, we've done many wedding ceremonies on the beach.

- Can you help us with the Welcome bags?

Absolutely. And we got lots of great ideas for you are welcome gift bags. Our team will put them altogether and deliver them to be everybody's rooms, including those staying off-site.

- How do we reserve the tours?

We will coordinate all of the tours and logistics for you starting with sending out a PDF of recommended tours and activities to your entire guest list. And we invite everyone to contact our office directly to arrange their activities. This way you don't have to be the travel agents and guides. You get to be the bride and groom.

- Can we have fireworks?

Oh that's a great idea. We also have the candle floating lanterns.

- What will be the menu for Rehearsal Dinner?

The menus are always custom design. But it's common for us to do the rehearsal dinner on the beach and offer grilled items such as fresh fish and chicken. Wait till you try our banana boats for dessert.

- What are the options for the Welcome reception?

Typically we arrange the welcome reception to be very casual with no hard start or end time. Many of your guests may be arriving into Costa Rica that day. That's why we like to do a poolside BBQ at Tierra Magnifica where it will be an intimate setting to welcome everyone.

- Can we have cupcakes instead of a Wedding Cake?

You can have whatever makes your heart sing.

- Can you help us find a nannie for those who need one?

Our staff are all from Nosara where there are lots of moms, aunts and sisters who would love to take care of your little ones. It's definitely a beautiful part of our Latin Culture here.

- Is there a Hair and Makeup artist? And maybe manis and pedis?

We have several talented practitioners who will come up to Ti Magnifica and take care of you and your bridal party, and anybody else who wants to be pampered and look their best.

- Can we have any kind of flowers?

Well the answer is yes, we've had flowers shipped in from outside of Costa Rica. However most brides choose tropical flowers that are available from Costa Rica. Our floral design team will bring everything to Tierra Magnifica and set up the arrangements on site.

- Can you help us find a lawyer?

We have English speaking lawyers right in town will work with you in advance to take care of all of the paperwork necessary for a legal marriage in the United States.

- Is there a DJ?

We have a list of recommended DJs that we will share with you. You will work out the playlist and arrangements directly with them.

- I will love to have classical music. Is there a String quartet that you can recommend?

We have relationships with musicians of all kinds. Let us know what you're dreaming up and we will make the arrangements.

- Do you have a photographer on site?

We have a list of photographers located right in Nosara and from San Jose. We will introduce you to these service providers and you will work out the arrangements directly.
